

The Stewpot is a resource center for homeless and at risk women, men, and children, in Dallas, providing:

*Alcohol and Drug Counseling
Casework Assistance
Children and Youth Programs
Dental Care
Educational and Recreational Activities
Employment Assistance
Identification Cards
Mail Services
Meals
Medical Care*

Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteers regularly participate in the following activities:

Art Classes: Each Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, from 9.00 am-11.30 am, volunteers facilitate art classes for interested homeless and at risk persons.

Baked Goods: Each day, from 7.00 am-8.00 am, volunteers pick up and deliver items from local bakeries to be served with meals.

Bible Studies: Each Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, from 9.00 am-10.00 am, volunteers facilitate bible studies for interested homeless and at risk persons.

Birthday Parties: Each month, volunteers donate beverages and food and host birthday parties for homeless and at risk persons.

Front Desk: Each weekday, from 8.00 am-11.30 am and 1.00 pm-3.00 pm, volunteers help respond to inquiries about Stewpot services at the front desk.

Identification Cards: Each Monday, from 9.30 am-11.30 am, volunteers create picture identification cards for persons in need of documentation.

In-Kind Donations: Volunteers regularly collect and donate items on The Stewpot's wish list, such as feminine hygiene products, razors, and toilet paper, for client use.

Mail Services: Each weekday, from 9.30 am-11.30 am and 1.30 pm-2.30 pm, volunteers pick up and deliver mail for persons without a permanent address.

Meals: Three meals daily at The Second Chance Cafe, volunteers serve meals to homeless and at risk persons.

Medical Clinic: Each week, volunteers help in a medical clinic for ill homeless and at risk persons.

Office Work: Each week, volunteers perform clerical tasks such as data entry and filing.

Saturday School: Each Saturday, when school is in session, from 8.30 am-12.30 pm, adult volunteers facilitate educational and recreational activities and serve meals to children and youth from City Park Elementary School.

Summer Visiting Youth Program: Each week, of each summer, youth groups stay at The Stewpot and volunteer at a variety of Dallas' social service agencies.

Venturing Crew: Each Wednesday, when school is in session, from 6.00 pm-8.30 pm, adult volunteers facilitate educational and recreational activities for youth in a coed troop affiliated with the Boy Scouts of America.

Please contact me, if you want to serve.

Jean Jones
Director of Volunteers

The Stewpot
408 Park Avenue @ Young Street
Dallas, Texas 75201
Phone: 214.746.2785 extension 320
Fax: 214.746.2791
jean.jones@thestewpot.org
www.thestewpot.org

The Stewpot is a Community Ministry of First Presbyterian Church, Dallas and utilizes its 501(c)3.